

LIGHT & DARK PART OF LOVE

*Today I'm far away from here, somewhere near me,
somewhere deep enough.*

It's like a song for my liberty to evade the feelings my craving for so long traveling with music.

It's like a song as a love story and if I don't say maybe would cease to feel or maybe I could be dying illusions within chords coming out, through my curious fingers every hour.

Without even know the right direction I could approach.

*And all these time yeah, years ago being sought, when she trying to going up
and all these time yeah, years ago she try to break down all the walls and when I got it,*

I could see that my heart had like two broken piano keys and if I try to get it out, to be alright and for my peace.

I do not wanted to go back to feel that I live and neither can not but its hard to conceive, and if I could burn , burn these but the memories are heavy, a part so light and dark Part of love and if could forget it all, but my heart is not as stone.

Then I understood when a heart its broken it was no able to xpress myself i wanted and so much happiness by his side I stood me 65% don't good taste of mouth..

I DONT LIKE TO EMPTY THIS SORROW

*I know it weighs on my but I dont wanna follow if I could burn this time it could be the solution but I can't cause I feel this can not be done.
I thought you have to rely reconsider years trying to feel a pain so deeper that didn't let me see as clearer like beforee..*
